

Harmony Day Poem

A day of happiness,
A day of laughter.
A time of joy,
A moment to remember.

To respect our culture,
Put a smile on our face,
A way to show honour
For all human race.

We're all unique,
we're all different.
From all nationalities
our community is significant.

A time of gathering,
A time to be bold and bright.
To show our colors,
And create a beautiful sight.
